

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES AND DIGNITY AT WORK POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1. This policy is a 'Whole School Policy' and informs practice in the Senior School, Preparatory School, Nursery and Boarding House.

2. Policy Statement

- 2.1. The School is an equal opportunities employer and is fully committed to a policy of treating all of its employees and job applicants equally. This policy takes into account the Equal Opportunities Act 2010 and is fully committed to work with its bounds.
- 2.2. The School will take all reasonable steps to employ, train and promote employees on the basis of their experience, abilities and qualifications without regard to race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, marital or civil partnership status or disability.
- 2.3. The School will also take all reasonable steps to provide a work environment in which all employees are treated with respect and dignity and that is free of harassment based on an employee's race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, marital or civil partnership status or disability.
- 2.4. The School will not condone any form of harassment, whether engaged in by employees or by outside third parties who do business with the School.
- 2.5. Employees have a duty to co-operate with the School to ensure that this policy is effective in ensuring equal opportunities and in preventing discrimination, harassment or bullying. Action will be taken under the "Disciplinary Policy" against any employee who is found to have committed an act of improper or unlawful discrimination, harassment, bullying or intimidation. Serious breaches of this policy will be treated as potential gross misconduct and could render the employee liable to summary dismissal. Employees should also bear in mind that they can be held personally liable for any act of unlawful discrimination. Employees who commit serious acts of harassment may also be guilty of a criminal offence.
- 2.6. You should draw the attention of the Head to suspected discriminatory acts or practices or suspected cases of harassment. You must not victimise or retaliate against an employee who has made allegations or complaints of discrimination or harassment or who has provided information about such discrimination or harassment. Such behaviour will be treated as potential gross misconduct in accordance with the "Disciplinary Policy".

3. Recruitment, Advertising and Selection

- 3.1. The recruitment process will be conducted in such a way as to result in the selection of the most suitable person for the job in terms of relevant experience, abilities and qualifications. The School is committed to applying this policy at all stages of recruitment and selection.
- 3.2. Advertisements will encourage applications from all suitably qualified and experienced people. When advertising job vacancies, in order to attract applications from all sections of the community, the School will, as far as reasonably practicable:
 - Ensure advertisements are not confined to those publications which would exclude or disproportionately reduce the numbers of applicants of a particular gender, sexual orientation, age, religion or racial group.
 - Avoid prescribing any unnecessary requirements which would exclude a higher proportion of a particular gender, sexual orientation, age, religion or racial group or which would exclude disabled job applicants.
 - Avoid prescribing any requirements as to marital or civil partnership status.
 - Where vacancies may be filled by promotion or transfer, they will be published to all eligible employees in such a way that they do not restrict applications from employees of any particular gender, sexual orientation, age, religion or racial group or from employees with a disability.
- 3.3. The selection process will be carried out consistently for all jobs at all levels. All applications will be processed in the same way. The staff responsible for short-listing, interviewing and selecting candidates will be clearly informed of the selection criteria and of the need for their consistent application. Person specifications and job descriptions will be limited to those requirements that are necessary for the effective performance of the job. Wherever possible all questions asked of the applicants will relate to the requirements of the job. The selection of new staff will be based on the job requirements and the individual's suitability and ability to do, or to train for, the job in question.
- 3.4. With disabled job applicants, the School will have regard to its duty to make reasonable adjustments to work provisions, criteria and practices or to work premises in order to ensure that the disabled person is not placed at a substantial disadvantage in comparison with persons who are not disabled.
- 3.5. If it is necessary to assess whether personal circumstances will affect the performance of the job (for example, if the job involves unsociable hours or extensive travel), this will be discussed objectively, without detailed questions based on assumptions about race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, marital or civil partnership status, disability, children and/or domestic obligations.
- 3.6. In accordance with the Equal Opportunities Act 2010, no enquiries about the health or disability will be made except for specific purposes such as to monitor equality to see if we need to make reasonable adjustments for the recruitment process or to establish if the applicant could carry out a function essential to the job.

4. Training and Promotion

- 4.1. The School will also provide training to all employees to help them understand their rights and responsibilities in relation to dignity at work and what they can do to create a work environment that is free of bullying and harassment.
- 4.2. Where a promotional system is in operation, it will not be discriminatory and it will be checked from time to time to assess how it is working in practice. When a group of workers predominantly of one race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or age group or a worker with a disability appears to be excluded from access to promotion, transfer and training and to other benefits, the promotional system will be reviewed to ensure there is no unlawful discrimination.

5. Terms of Employment, Benefits, Facilities and Services

- 5.1. All terms of employment, benefits, facilities and services will be reviewed from time to time, in order to ensure that there is no unlawful discrimination on the grounds of race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, marital or civil partnership status or disability.

6. Equal Pay

- 6.1. The School is committed to a performance related pay structure. It believes its male and female employees should receive equal pay for like work, work rated as equivalent or work of equal value. In order to achieve this, the School will endeavour to maintain a pay system that is transparent, free from bias and based on objective criteria.

7. Bullying and Harassment

- 7.1. Bullying is offensive or intimidating behaviour or an abuse or misuse of power which undermines or humiliates an employee.
- 7.2. Harassment occurs where, on the ground of an employee's race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, marital or civil partnership status or disability, a person engages in unwanted conduct that:
 - Has the purpose of violating the employee's dignity at work, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive work environment for the employee.
 - Is reasonably considered by the employee to have the effect of violating his or her dignity at work, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive work environment for the employee, even if this effect was not intended by the person responsible for the conduct.

- 7.3. Conduct may be harassment whether or not the person intended to offend. Something intended as a 'joke' or as 'office banter' may offend another person. This is because different employees find different levels of behaviour acceptable and everyone has the right to decide for themselves what behaviour they find acceptable to them.
- 7.4. Behaviour which a reasonable person would realise could be likely to offend an employee will always constitute harassment without the need for the employee having to make it clear that such behaviour is unacceptable, for example, touching someone in a sexual way. With other forms of behaviour, it may not always be clear in advance that it will offend a particular employee, for example, office banter and jokes. In these cases, the behaviour will constitute harassment if the conduct continues after the employee has made it clear, by words or conduct, that such behaviour is unacceptable to him or her. A single incident can amount to harassment if it is sufficiently serious.
- 7.5. Harassment also occurs where, on the ground of the employee's rejection of or submission to unwanted conduct of the kind specified above, a person treats the employee less favourably than they would treat him/her had he/she not rejected, or submitted to, the unwanted conduct.

- 7.6. Bullying and harassment may be verbal, non-verbal, written or physical. Examples of unacceptable behaviour include, but are not limited to, the following:
- Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favours or other conduct of a sexual nature.
 - Subjection to obscene or other sexually suggestive or racist comments or gestures.
 - The offer of rewards for going along with sexual advances or threats for rejecting sexual advances.
 - Jokes or pictures of a sexual or racial nature.
 - Demeaning comments about an employee's appearance.
 - Questions about a person's sex life.
 - The use of nicknames related to an employee's sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, race, religion, age or disability.
 - Picking on or ridiculing an employee.
 - Isolating an employee or excluding him or her from social activities or relevant work-related matters.

8. Reporting Complaints

- 8.1. All allegations of discrimination or harassment will be dealt with seriously, confidentially and speedily. The School will not ignore or treat lightly grievances or complaints of discrimination or harassment from members of a particular race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, national origin, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation or age or from employees who have undergone gender reassignment, are married, have entered into a civil partnership or have a disability.
- 8.2. With cases of harassment, while the School encourages employees who believe they are being harassed to notify the offender (by words or by conduct) that his or her behaviour is unwelcome, the School also recognises that actual or perceived power and status disparities may make such confrontation impractical.
- 8.3. If you wish to make a complaint of discrimination or harassment, you should follow the following steps:
- 1) First of all, report the incident of discrimination or harassment to the Head. If your complaint relates to the Head, you can report the matter to the Director.
 - 2) Such reports should be made promptly so that investigation may proceed and any action taken expeditiously.
 - 3) All allegations of discrimination or harassment will be taken seriously. The allegation will be promptly investigated and, as part of the investigatory process, you will be interviewed and asked to provide a written witness statement setting out the details of your complaint. Confidentiality will be maintained during the investigatory process to the extent that this is practical and appropriate in the circumstances. However, in order to effectively investigate an allegation, the School must be able to determine the scope of the investigation and the individuals who should be informed of or interviewed about the allegation. For example, the identity of the complainant and the nature of the allegations must be revealed to the alleged harasser or discriminator so that he or she is able to fairly respond to the allegations.
 - 4) The School will also invite you to attend at least one meeting at a reasonable time and place at which your complaint can be discussed. You must take all reasonable steps to attend that meeting and you have the right to be accompanied by either a trade union official or a fellow employee of your choice.

- 5) Once the investigation has been completed and the meeting with you has taken place, you will be informed in writing of the outcome and the School's conclusions and decision as soon as possible. You will also be notified in writing of your right to appeal against the School's decision, if you are not satisfied with it. The School is committed to taking appropriate action with respect to all complaints of discrimination or harassment which are upheld.
- 6) If you wish to appeal against the School's decision, you must appeal in writing to the Director within five working days of the School's decision. On receipt of an appeal, the Director shall make arrangements to hear it at an appeal meeting with a member of the School's Advisory Board. At that meeting you may again, if you wish, be accompanied by either a trade union official or a fellow employee of your choice. You must take all reasonable steps to attend that meeting. Following the meeting, the Director will inform you in writing of the School's final decision on your appeal.
- 7) You will not be penalised for raising a complaint, even if it is not upheld, unless your complaint was both untrue and made in bad faith.
- 8) If your complaint is upheld and the harasser or discriminator remains in the School's employment, the School will take all reasonable steps to ensure that you do not have to continue working alongside them if you do not wish to do so. The School will discuss the options with you.
- 9) If your complaint is not upheld, arrangements will be made for you and the alleged harasser or discriminator to continue or resume working and to repair working relationships.
- 10) Alternatively, you may, if you wish, use the "Grievance Policy" to make a complaint.

8.4. Any employee who is found to have discriminated against or harassed another employee in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action under the "Disciplinary Policy". They may also be found to be personally liable to their victim and be ordered to pay compensation. Such behaviour may be treated as gross misconduct and could render the employee liable to summary dismissal.

9. Monitoring Equal Opportunity and Dignity at Work

9.1. The School will regularly monitor the effects of selection decisions and personnel and pay practices and procedures in order to assess whether equal opportunity and dignity at work are being achieved. This will also involve considering any possible indirectly discriminatory effects of its working practices. If changes are required, the School will implement them. The School will also make reasonable adjustments to its standard working practices to overcome barriers caused by disability.

10. Policy Owner

10.1. The policy owner is the Director.

11. Issue Date

11.1. Issue date: September 2018.

12. Review Date

12.1. This policy will be reviewed annually. The next review is due in September 2018.
