

BTEC Dance

- Exam board: Pearson
- Course work or exam?: All coursework, no written exam
- What will I learn about?: The performing arts industry, how to choreograph to a brief, develop dance styles in ballet, contemporary and Jazz, appreciate current and past practitioners that have influenced the dance world. You will become an independent vocationally aware learner with the right balance between teaching/learning and formal assessment without any written examinations.
- Great for: This course is suitable for those who have an interest in dance, who want to find out where Performing Arts stands in today's society, challenge this and to have a passion 'to' dance. If you look at professional dance and feel inspired to create yourself and love to dance then this course is suited to you. The most exciting part is that BTEC can support your own study paths and branch out into areas that showcase your strengths.

Student view: "I have enjoyed studying BTEC Dance, because not only do we learn multiple styles of dance, including jazz, ballet and contemporary, with choreography and technique classes, we also learn about the history of dance and the Performing Arts in the industry"
