Philosophy and Ethics

- Teachers: Mr de Pleave
- Exam board: Pearson Edexcel
- Course work or exam? 100% exam
- What will I learn about? You will learn how to define right and wrong in the context of major issues in life (ranging from death to sex); major strands of thought which affect the society in which we live and religious versus secular viewpoints.
- Great for: Students who wish to pursue careers in the law, journalism and any job which requires analytical, impartial arguments, as well as anyone interested in the real issues we face in life.

Student view: "I have been amazed at how much I learnt about how society is structured and the constant tension between the needs of the individual versus the needs of society"
